

A Necklace with Wooden Beads and Glass Beads

Glass and wooden beads are threaded onto a piece of cotton twine. Knots are tied onto the cotton twine to keep the beads in place. End caps are glued onto the cotton twine and the clasp is attached with round jump rings.

Inspiration: 12577